

II. Participant Release:

In signing this release, I acknowledge the potential danger/harm/injury that could accompany such an event and assume the risk thereof. I acknowledge that I understand the intent and hereby agree to absolve and hold harmless Emmanuel Covenant Church ("ECC"), its staff and/or volunteers and any others connected with this event in any way whatsoever, singly and collectively, from and against liability for any misadventure or injury, in this event or the activities associated therewith (rafting, kayaking, biking, camping, etc.). Furthermore, I hold harmless ECC from losses resulting from the negligence of those listed or otherwise associated with this trip. I, on my behalf of myself, my personal representatives and heirs, hereby voluntarily agree to release, waive, discharge, hold harmless, defend and indemnify the above individuals and ECC from any and all claims, actions, or losses for bodily injury, property damage, wrongful death, loss of services or otherwise, which may arise out of this event and/or during transportation to and from this event.

I am at least eighteen (18) years of age and I am under no mental or legal disability that would prevent me from signing and executing this agreement. I further represent that I have read (or have had read to me) and understood the terms of this agreement.

Trip Costs include: transportation, supplies, camping permits, and most of your food.

Does not include: Personal Gear (sleeping bags, camping mats, rain gear, fishing equipment or licenses, and food while traveling to and from BWCA).

However: Anyone interested in going that is missing a piece of essential gear (such as rain gear, sleeping bag, sleeping mat, etc.) should not hesitate to sign up. We have experienced guys that have quality extra gear - they are more than willing to lend if needed.

Extras: Each participant will need to bring extra money for at least one meal traveling to and from BWCA along with any road snacks. The entire group finds a local restaurant (Grand Marais) to have lunch at on the way back home.

I. Medical Release: In the event of a medical emergency, it is imperative that we be able to contact your medical insurance carrier and primary care physician. You must confirm that you have your medical insurance carrier's and primary care physician's name and phone number in your possession during the entire trip or if not in your possession in a secure location as noted below that someone would be able to access in the event of a medical emergency. You must also consent to emergency medical treatment in the event of illness or injury.

Join ECC for the 2014 Boundary Waters canoe and camping trip! This year we will head up through Grand Marias and continue up the Gun Flint Trail to enjoy beautiful and quiet scenery the BWCA has to offer. Along with camping and canoeing, you will have an opportunity to fish, hike, relax, eat great, explore the Great North and get to know other guys from ECC in a unique and exciting way!
